

Making History Series

presented by the
Butler-McCook House & Garden

A series of make-and-take events, inspired by the colonial past and taught by skilled craftspeople.

Saturday, May 8th, 12 – 4 pm

Berry Basket Making

With Jennifer Misseri of Connecticut Valley Baskets

$100 per person, $85 for CTL Members. Registration required by Monday, May 3rd at <https://ctl-berry-basket-making.eventbrite.com>.

Saturday, August 21st, 1 – 3:30 pm

Charter Oak Pendant

With Sandra Van Vooren

$45 per person, $40 for CTL Members. Registration required by Monday, August 16th at <https://ctl-pendant-making-2021.eventbrite.com>.

Wed., Sept. 22nd, 5:30 – 7:30 pm

Build-Your-Own Seasonal Bouquet

With CTL's own Jana Colacino and Lynn Mervosh

$30 per person, $25 for CTL Members. Registration required by Sunday, September 19th at <https://ctl-bouquet-making.eventbrite.com>.

Advance registration is required for all Making History programs. All programs will be held in the Amos Bull House located at 59 South Prospect Street in Hartford. In order to protect the health of our staff, visitors, and community, all visitors must wear masks and adhere to social distancing guidelines.